

2018-2019

DIVERSITY CHAMPIONS PROGRAM

Diversity Champions is a yearlong, ongoing strategy to engage in professional development and conversations that bring us together around the complex issues of inclusion.

Module 1: Race and Culture

Tentative Meeting dates: 12/3, 1/9, 2/6, 3/6

This module starts with self-realization and reflection before moving into a conversation about strategies to communicate with those who are different from you.

Module 2: Identity and Expression

Tentative Meeting dates: 5/8, 6/12

We will continue to hear from multiple perspectives and explore the intersection of race with other identities.

Module 3: Equal Opportunity & Access

Tentative Meeting dates: 9/11

As we continue to explore intersectionality, we will learn about resources that will allow for inclusion of a wider audience.

Module 4: Your Realm of Influence

Tentative Meeting dates: 10/9

We will finish out year with a mentoring session to enable you to effectively pass on the knowledge and skills gained by this program.

OSU Extension Service prohibits discrimination in all its programs, services, activities, and materials.

Contact Information for Accommodation Requests and Questions
Email: inclusive.outreach@oregonstate.edu | Phone: (541) 737-1346

Oregon State University
Extension Service

Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion